Reverie '78

Revere Senior High School

3420 Everett Road
Richfield, Ohio 44286

Volume XXVI

Spirit Runs High

Pep Club members spend long hours decorating lockers, planning pep assemblies and painting signs. Kneeling are Sandie Sabaka, Pam Giles, Cathe Crislip, Amy Brown, Julie Patterson, Melanie Smith, Kelly Douds, Ellen Ehlert, Carolyn Scavuzzo and Helen Jamesson. Standing are Becky Nye, Ellen Wisnieski and Stacy Taylor.

"Where do you go to school anyway?"

"Revere — it's sort of out in the Bath-Richfield area."

"Hmmm. Never heard of it. Wait . . . yes I have. Isn't it the one way out in the boonies where they teach you how to plow?"

"Wait a minute. You're thinkin' of some place else."

"You mean it isn't the farm school?"

"Nope."

"Well, what do you guys do way out there?"

"Go to football games, . . ."

"You guys actually have a football team?"

"Yeah and it's pretty good too. You should've been at some of the games — the stands were packed."

"Really? Did you win any?"

ABOVE: Besides planning the athletic schedules, the Athletic Office workers, like Kris Nank, also have to manage the selling of tickets for the sports events. LEFT: Red shirts and "I hate Green" hankies dominate the pep assemblies.

Spirit Of Fun

"Yeah, more than we have for a long time."

"Oh. What else happens at um . . . ."

"Revere."

"Yeah."

"Lotsa things."

"Like what?"

"Well, lotsa kids belong to clubs."

"What kinds?"

"Well, there's AFS, Thespians, Key Club, Art Club, Ski Club . . . ."

"What else goes on at um . . . . Revere?"

"There's lots of dances, and all kinds of sports events."

We're In Good Spirits

BELOW: Round and round the cheerleaders go, but what they've plotted the players don't know. RIGHT: Woody the Greek can't be wrong all the time with his predictions.

"Sounds like people are involved."

"Yeah, I think that they are. Sometimes, though, things don't go the way we want them to."

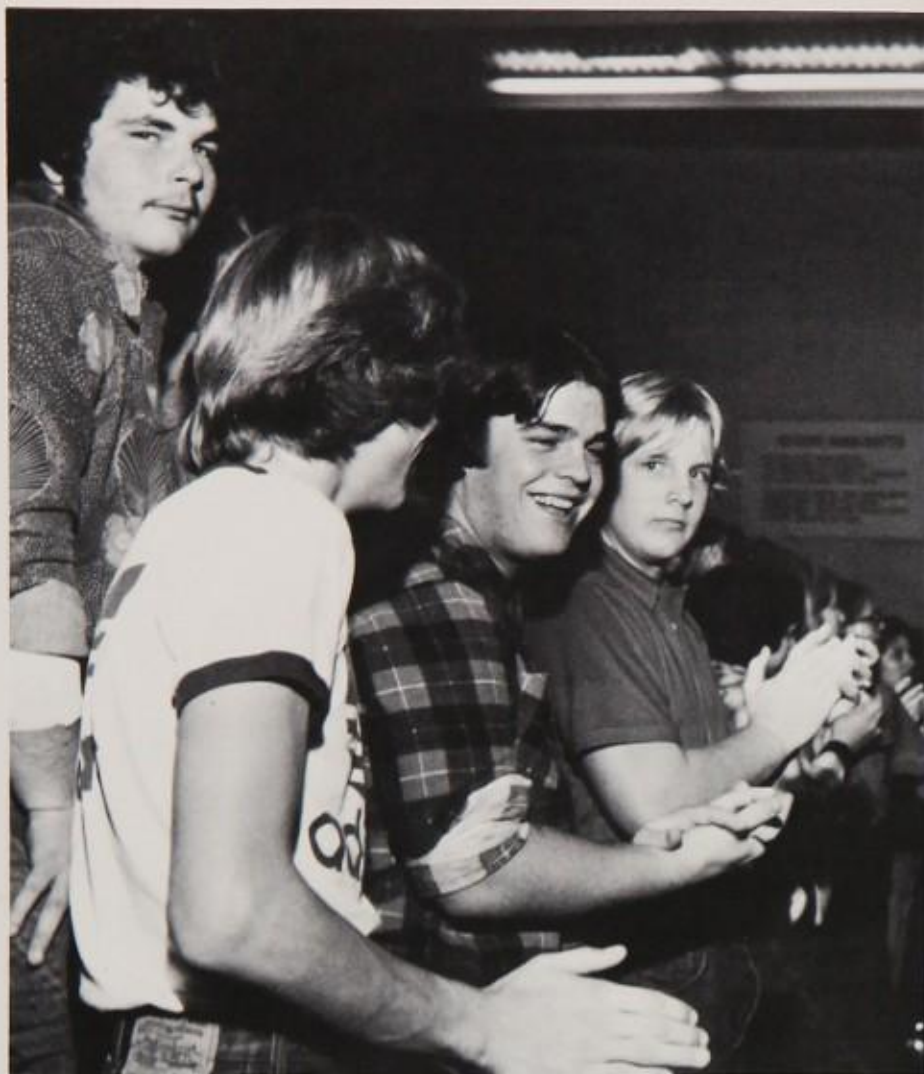

"Well, that does happen."

"But, for the most part good things are happening."

"Oh. Then some people do care."

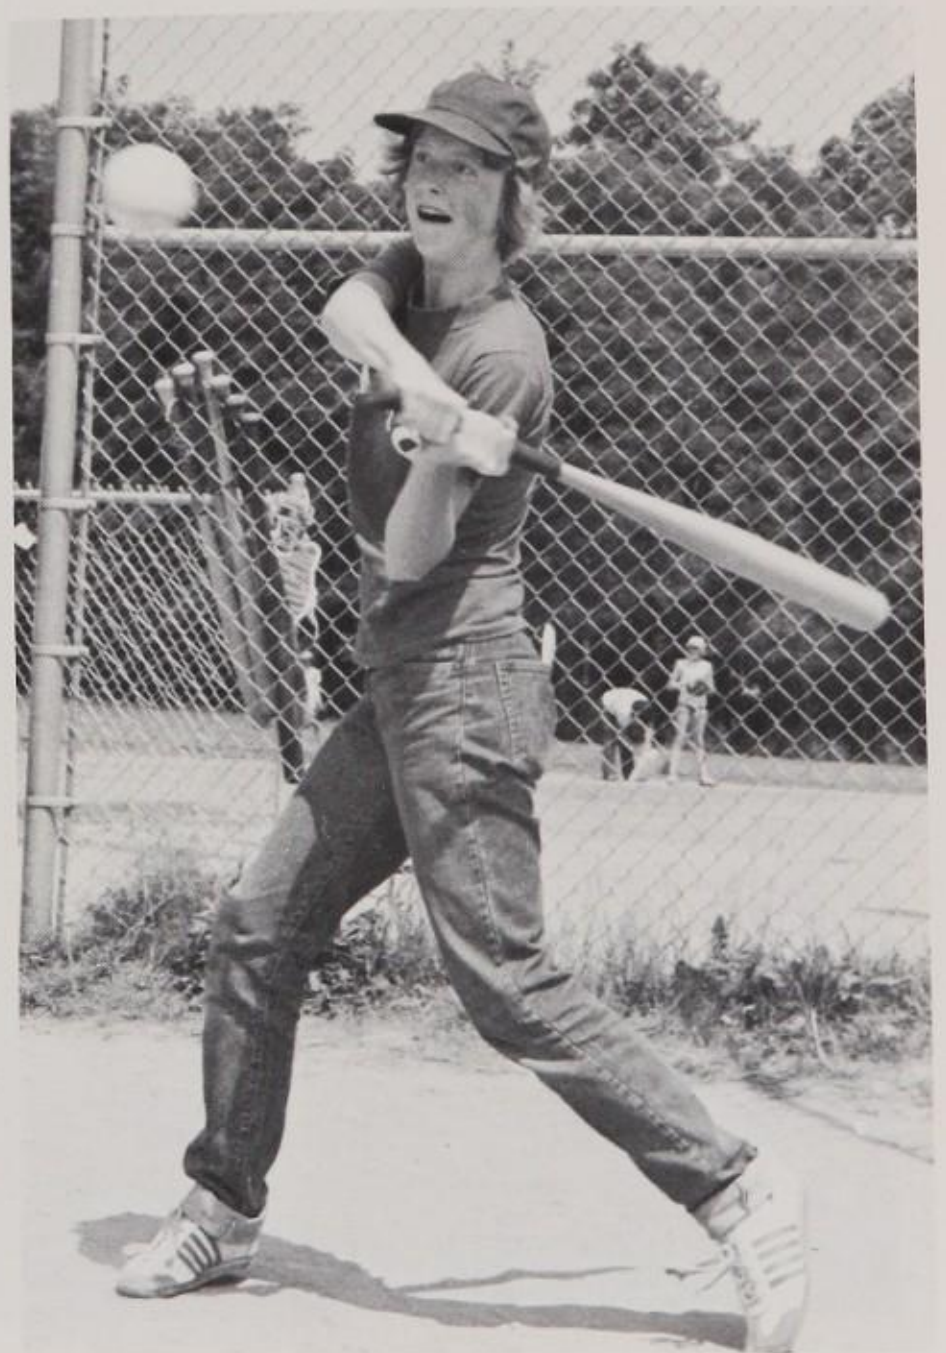

"Yeah, maybe you're . . . um . . . right."

Happenings

"What Do You See?" "Let ME See."

Through the more penetrating eyes of a microscope other worlds appear and the barriers of ignorance lower. Always questing curiosity leads youthful scientists further into the mystery of Life. to learn is to grow from darkness toward light, from primitiveness toward sophistication, from body toward spirit. "But then I shall know, even as also I am known."

Summer's Never Boring

Whoever said that there's nothing to do during the summer could not have been more wrong than if he'd said the world is flat. With swim clubs, shopping malls, baseball and softball games, horse shows, vacation trips and jobs who has time to be bored?

TOP: Browsing through a local record store are Melanie Wallace and Linda Zendlo. RIGHT: Baseball games can be frustrating to both players and fans. That's why umpire Dick Hecman-czuk is carefully surveying the play. ABOVE: Helen Jameson, Cory Lenington, Barb Miller and Kathy Eaton found an enjoyable way to spend the afternoon--watching the Bath Horse Show.

We've heard of white trash, Kevin, but really . . . . BE-
summer's day.

maneuvers his horse and sulky around the show ring.
awaits the inevitable Revere fall traffic.

School Keeps

From 7:55 A.M. to 2:35 P.M. students were embroiled in a sea of classes, quiet study halls, noisy study halls, lunch, appointments with counselors, field trips, summons by Mr. Knapp or Mr. Wolski, achievement tests, physical examinations for sports, tryouts for places in the band, assemblies, appointments with college representatives, pep rallies, and other, unofficial activities. All of these happenings were approached by students with varying degrees of energy and/or enthusiasm, and from their spirit emerged the public image of the school called Revere. The "inner eye" image was and will probably remain different for different students. "You have to love life to have life; you have to have life to love life."

quote from Thornton Wilder's

The Team And Stacy Win

Due to lack of interest in particular activities, Spirit Week this year was shortened to two days.

Along with Color Day, a new addition was T-shirt Day, whereby everyone, including teachers, wore his favorite T-shirt. As usual, the girls played their annual Powderpuff games. Sophomores were pitted against Juniors in the Superpuff, and the junior girls won.

The football game had a record-breaking stand of spectators who watched Revere beat Highland for the first Homecoming win in several years. Halftime provided plenty of entertainment. The theme for the floats was "Stomp on Highland." The juniors won with their Raid can that sprayed its contents onto a Highland bee.

As a new feature, the girls were driven around the track in sports cars before their escorts joined them to walk across the field. Queen Stacy Taylor was announced three times before the court could hear over the band playing. Kim Owoc was honored as first runner-up and crowner.

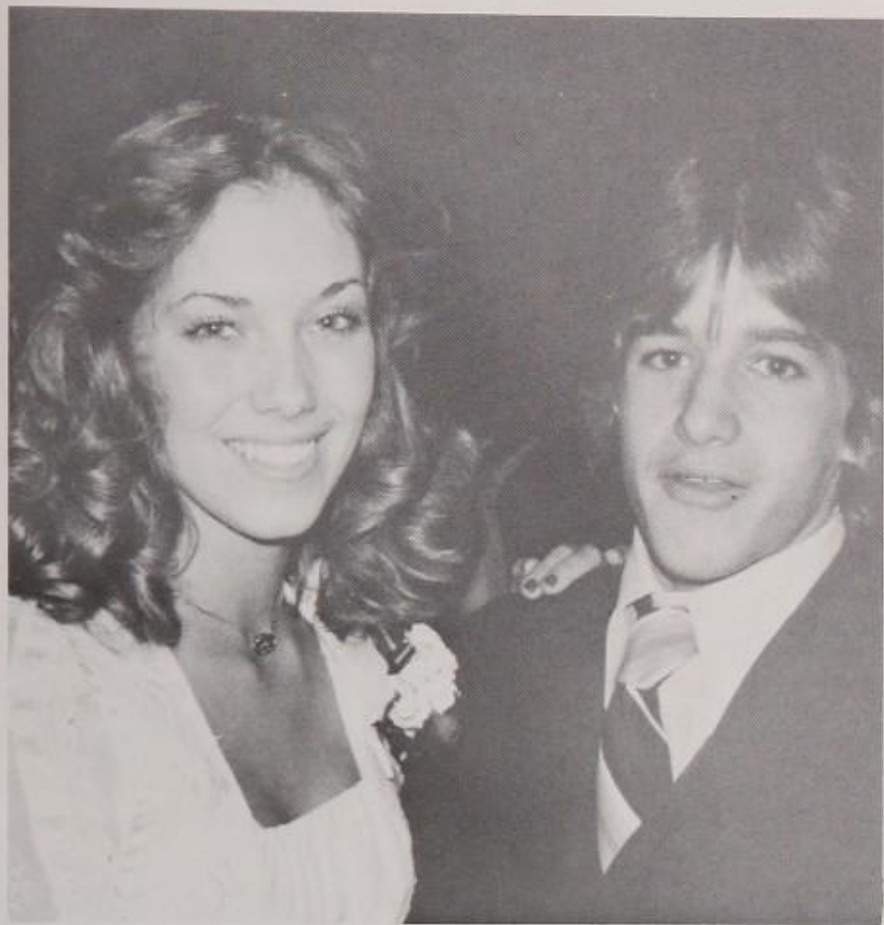

The court includes: Ron Munsey, Jeannie Vandervoort, Matt Bosworth, Libby Couch, Rick Larsen, Kim Owoc, Ken Mehring,

GIRLS "KICK OFF"

Great expectations.

It was a beautiful day for the opening games of the girls' powderpuff football season. As the rain began to drizzle and the dirt to coagulate, junior and freshmen girls lined up for the kickoff of the first game. Perhaps it was the inexperience of the freshmen that led to an overwhelming victory for the juniors. In any case, the juniors had earned themselves a place in the Super Bowl of powderpuff football — the Super Puff.

Next to take the ruinous field were the seniors and sophomores. Experience was not, however, on the side of the seniors. In a battle of strength and determination the sophomores proved victorious, edging out the seniors in a VERY close game and earning, also, a place in the Super Puff.

Tension was high as the sophomore and junior girls lined up for the kickoff Super Puff night. It was a tough battle, but the junior girls emerged as the winners of the 1977 Super Puff.

The HIKE —

We're No. 1 . . . or so the seniors thought.

This Is Our Time

Do you remember painter's pants, sun dresses, double-pierced ears, goose down vests, clogs, cars, digital watches, Dorothy Hamill haircuts, Levi's, blow driers, stereo systems, concerts, T-shirts with sayings, Farrah Fawcett-Majors, canvas bags, hiking pants, tennis shirts, platform shoes, braces, suntans, natural fabrics, 10-speed bikes, denim suits, vests, beer, albums, Frye boots and big glasses? All of these things and more were a part of us at the close of 1978.

Everything changes; time, yourself, your surroundings and the style of clothing that is "in." Remember that part of you which you have left behind.

I've Got So Much Work To Do

"WANTED: High school student for part-time employment after school; no experience necessary." While some students were content to remain at school for the entire day, ride home on the bus, eat a snack and then watch a few soap operas, a large number of students obtained early dismissal from school so they could attend a job as well. The only real difficulty with working and going to school simultaneously occurred on the nights before tests. It was impossible to memorize theorems and important facts about the Revolution while trying to remember just who ordered the steak with the baked potato.

Where else but at Dairy Queen, Stouffer's, MacDonald's, Whitey's, Barnhill's, Lanning's, Yanko's, SkyWay, Manners, Burger King, Li'l Joe's Pub, Tavern of Richfield, Town-N-Country Auto Wash, Lawson's, Pilgrim Square Cleaners, Summit Mall Theatre, The Limited, Halle's, O'Neil's, Polsky's, Diamond's, Marathon or Way Lo could workers earn that extra money for spending, a new car, or college?

We Know We Belong To — OKLAHOMA!

Directed and accompanied by Miss Julie Nolin, the spring choral concert was in four parts. The first act of the program featured Negro Spirituals, a boys' and a girls' solo and the old favorite, "People." The Revere Singers performed several songs during the second portion of the concert. The third act featured two guitarists, Dave Lehman and Tony Milo. But the final act, and the highlight of the show, included many famous selections from the Broadway musical OKLAHOMA! "I Can't Say No," sung by Barb Nagel and "Poor Judd Is Dead," performed by Dave Lehman and Bill Henry coupled with several stunt and dance routines and the remaining "Oklahoma!" selections made the show an absolute success. "We know we belong to — Oklahoma!"

Revere Visits OUR TOWN

Our Town directed by Mrs. Frazier and produced by Mr. Shardy, was written by Thornton Wilder, who tells the drama of a small town during the turn of the century.

Presented December 2nd and 3rd, the play follows the everyday lives of the Gibbs, and Webb families, telling of their fears and hopes, dreams and loves.

The stage manager, portrayed by Jim Gibbs, follows the story from the spectator's view, offering advice, opinion, philosophy, and guidance. He leads Emily (Liz Peebles) and George (Mike Calhoun) through love, marriage, and death. He points out to the audience the obvious and the discreet, the humorous and the sad. This play reflects life, on earth and beyond.

The Stage Manager (Jim Gibbs) tells his opinion about married life "M marries N, millions of them. The cottage, the go-cart, the Sunday afternoon drives in the Ford, the first rheumatism, the grandchildren, the second rheumatism, the deathbed, the reading of the will — once in a thousand times it's interesting!"

Cast: SITTING: Leslie Manna, Christy Lohmann, Doug Lehman, Loran Keys, Vickie Deffibaugh, Tracy Walker, Kathy Eaton, Evan Smith, Anne Jordan, Solveig Ejleron, Dorothy Paine, Tammy Deffibaugh, Gwen McConnell, Debbie Pica, Reyna Lounsbury, Beth Howard. # Revere Dusts Off Its Acts

Hitler takes over the stage! Bill Papas, John Backderf and Mike Kukral make it all available to you for only $19.95.

Stacy Taylor and Barb Nagel walk and sing their way down the avenue.

"I'm easy," sings Dave Altizer.

Featuring some of the brightest talent at Revere, the annual variety show, ACTS FROM OUR ATTIC, was a show to be seen. Mr. Steve Shardy did an admirable job for his first attempt at stage direction. Highlights of the show included a duet by Barb Nagel and Stacy Taylor, Oscar the Human Dummy (a comedy skit with Greg Rogerson and John Backderf), a gymnastics routine by Rusty Merrill and Gwen McConnell and many others. The show closed with an original arrangement of "Rocky" done by Dave Borsvold and performed by the pit band.

As director, Mr. Shardy voices his directions.

Musical Director: Julie Nolin

Song, dance and drama marked the stage for an exciting Thespian Spring Musical, THE FANTASTICKS. With much determination and perserverance, practice was staged every day for six weeks before and after school. The platform was set, and our poised directors, Mrs. Kate Frazier and musical director, Miss Julie Nolin, were ready for "action!" "Your friend is the audience," was kept in mind as we conveyed our simple but meaningful messages to our listeners. Rave reviews and a standing ovation the last night, proved our goal had been attained.

How Do You Get There From Here?

Throughout the year, students used various modes of transportation to get to school. Many own their own cars while others joined their neighbors at the bus stop. By whichever means, the unpaved parking lot was braved by all for one more year.

On many Friday and Saturday nights these cars migrate to the paved parking lots of the local hamburger hang-outs. Revere students have traditionally gone to Red Barn after football games, while Copley went to Burger King and Firestone to McDonald's. What better place to relax, talk with friends, and get a bite to eat after a Revere game or dance?

The Chrysler Award, based upon leadership, character, loyalty, reliability, scholarship and participation, is awarded annually to two seniors from each high school in the area. Mark Woodling and Stacy Taylor were the Chrysler Award winners from Revere. A banquet honoring all of the Chrysler Award recipients and parents was given at Tangiers with each winner being presented with a certificate.

Several weeks before the Awards Night Assembly, senior NHS members met to nominate their classmates for the Outstanding Seniors Award. A couple weeks later a joint meeting of faculty and NHS convened to make the final decision for this award. The Manhood and Womanhood winners were Greg Rogerson and Barb Rusanowsky, respectively.

Congratulations!

Awards of all shapes and sizes were presented at the Awards Night Assembly, May 24, 1978. Among the various awards were the art awards from several different shows, the Bob Lowe Memorial, the Apple Pie Award, the math awards, the Councilman of the Year Award, the American Red Cross Award, the Ohio Scholastic Awards, the AFS presentation, the Vocational Awards and the numerous scholarships.

They Came, They Saw, They Ate

Once again the University of Akron's Gardner Student Center hosted the Senior Banquet. The festivities lasted two and a half hours with Mark Woodling and Barb Rusanowsky acting as the toastpersons of the affair.

Providing entertainment for the evening were Anne Jordan, Mike Kukral, Mark Seifert, Kim Emich, Melanie Gasbarre, Larry Pilcher, and Kevin Hardman. Michelle Springer and Diane Balinski concluded the program by awarding the "bests" and "most likelies."

The banquet marked the beginning of the end of high school for the seniors.

Moonlight And Roses

The theme was Moonlight and Roses for the starry-eyed couples who attended the "last fling" for the seniors.

With the combination of an elegant atmosphere and refreshments, the seniors swayed enjoyably to the sounds of the "42nd Parallel" at the senior prom held at the University Club.

Everyone seemed to have a beautiful May 27th evening.

Valette Solomon and John Harris are all smiles in their formals.

Enjoying the punch are Ken Mehring and Libby Couch.

Dave Brown and his date relax after the last dance.

John Meek and Diana Millisor enjoy the evening thoroughly.

When Mike Ward speaks, EVERYONE listens.

Pam Myers and Bob McBee have a heart-to-heart talk about his dancing.

"Where's your date, Bill?"

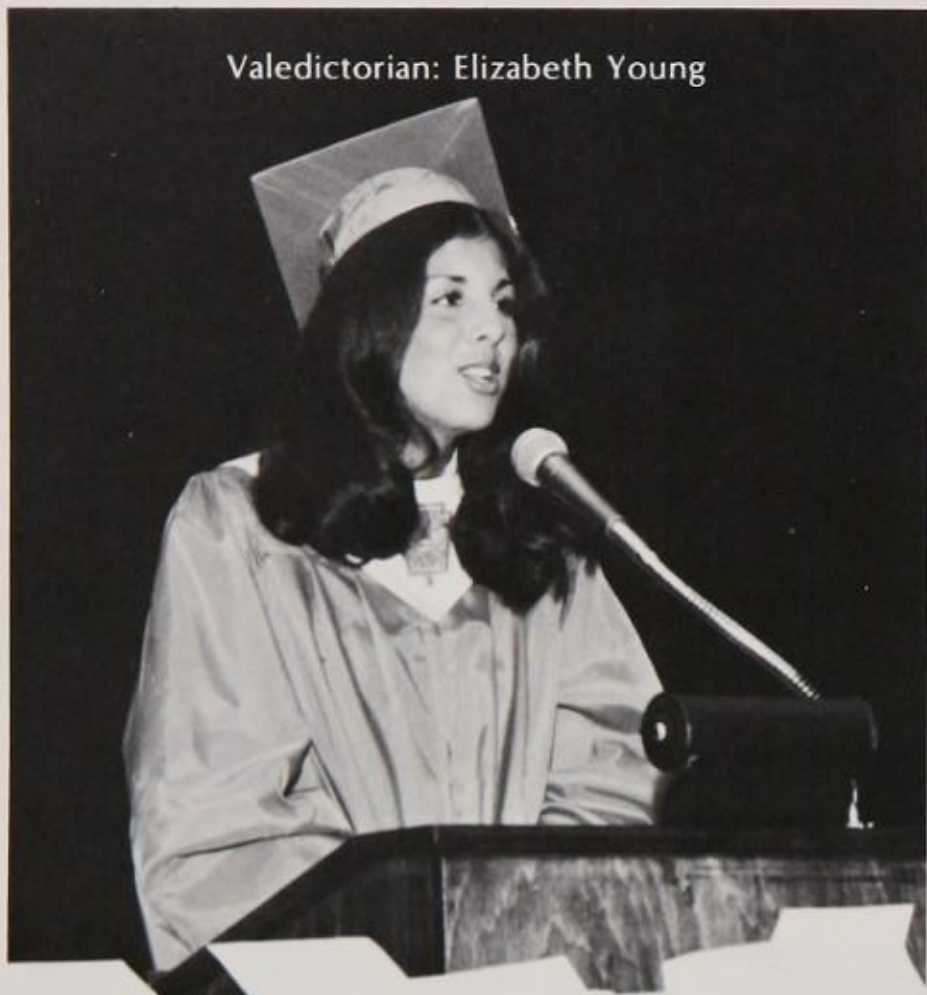

"Just one look, that's all it took!"

Marching Band Establishes National Reputation

RIGHT: Paul Badowski, your Circus World host.
BELOW: The comedy team of Dave Borsvold, Mark Woodling and Bill Henry was the hit of the band talent show.

Accepting an invitation to participate in The Festival of Stars Marching Band Competition, the Revere Band spent a fun-filled weekend in Orlando, Florida. Besides participating in this competition involving 7 bands held at the Tangerine Bowl, the band performed at Circus World and marched in a parade through Disney World. In order to get to Florida, the marchers raised over $20,000 used to charter a TWA jet and obtain rooms at the Days Inn. A dance was held one night at poolside with one of Florida's top rock bands, while a program of skits highlighted another evening. In retrospect, the 180 bandsmen (the largest band in the competition) and 40 chaperones enjoyed a weekend which will not soon be forgotten.

AARON, Imported From England.

AARON, an English singing group, who was making a promotional tour in the United States, visited Revere and saved our students from their ninth period classes. They were giving a preview concert for their performance the next night. They sang songs from the BEATLES, and also a few of their own songs. The lead singer did excellent imitations of MICK JAGGER and the late ELVIS PRESLEY, which left the girls screaming. For their night performance they sang mostly their own songs. It was an informal concert, with the few people who came stretched out on the gym floor.

At their evening concert AARON invited the audience to sit on the gym floor.

Washington Opens Its

As in past years, several Revere students had the opportunity to witness our government first hand through the Close-up program in Washington D.C. Accompanied by Mrs. Moran, the students attended seminars on foreign affairs, lobbying, and the three branches of the government. Area Congressmen spoke about local interests. Our students had the honor of sitting in on the Panama Canal Treaty debates and at the same time saw Sen. Muriel Humphrey in her first week of filling her late husband's seat. For entertainment, Ford Theater, where Lincoln was shot, had a production of THE AMERICAN DREAM MACHINE. Free time was spent seeing the Washington area, although time was scarce, it was a great insight into our nations capitol.

"I Vant Your Blood!"

"Do I have to get my ear pierced just to give blood?" wonders Dave Reese.

Scores of Minutemen volunteered to help the Red Cross by donating pints of blood. They were motivated by: 1) an innate desire to help others; 2) the desire to miss an hour of class; 3) the offer of free food after donating blood. Faculty, administration and members of the community also gave the sanguine colored fluid while many students volunteered their time to insure success of the program.

The Trocks Are Coming

On Thursday May 17, a ballet company came to Revere to perform parts of their repertoire for Mrs. Clay's French students, and soon had the students laughing so hard the tears came.

"What did this ballet company do that was so funny?" you may ask. For one thing the company, Les Ballets Trockadero de Monte Carlo, is composed entirely of men. It is a partly serious, partly put-on troupe from New York City that began about four years ago. The Trocks, complete with pink skirts and tights, dance both male and female roles.

The vision of these over-sized "ballerinas" in make-up is absolutely ludicrous — the Trocks mock the conventions and rituals of dance in every number they perform. "Accidents" are thrown in the dances for comic effect: in the middle of an arabesque, dancers collide and become hopelessly entangled; or a graceful leap will end in a flat-footed thud.

The Trocks appeared at E. J. Thomas Hall May 18 and 19 and had the sold-out audiences rolling in the aisles.

Revere Students Learn About

On February 11, 1978, 20 Revere Students flew to La Guardia Airport in New York as part of a student council exchange program. They spent one week at Sewanhaka High School on Long Island, taking in the sights of the Big Apple such as the World Trade Center and an Off-Broadway play, THE FANTASTICKS. Then on March 11, 20 Sewanhaka students came to Revere. During the week they got to meet students and took in area landmarks such as Stan Hywet. It was a learning experience as well as fun for everyone involved.

Revere students got to see nationally famous buildings like the Empire State Building.

Ohio Immobilized By Worst Blizzard Ever!

During the '77-'78 school year, many changes and events took place that will eventually fade into oblivion; but the blizzard of '78 will not be forgotten for a long time.

For winter sport enthusiasts, it was a great winter for skiing and sledding, especially with a record 80 inches of snow during the month of January. It was a great winter for blocked roads, delayed buses, cars stuck in ditches, accidents, obscene language, and tow trucks.

Just getting to school in the morning was an adventure, as snow blocked the roads and delayed buses sometimes as late as half an hour, and some students were even left stranded at their bus stops. It became so bad that as soon as you got up, you'd turn on the radio and listen eagerly for announcements of school closings, go back to bed and get up later to shovel out the driveway, sometimes several times a day. If you were lucky enough to make it to school, there still remained the torture of spending an entire day in freezing cold classrooms.

Along with the frigid weather and record-low temperatures came news of a coal strike, which lasted so long that a coal shortage became a serious problem, threatening to close the schools. Newspapers kept us up-to-date with the latest negotiations and reminded us daily of how many days we had left of coal.

As the winter wore on and on, people's patience began to wear thin and even the most enthusiastic snow buffs wished that it would end soon. Unfortunately, it didn't.

January 26th, 1978, was absolutely the last straw. An extremely severe blizzard struck with such force that virtually everything was closed, shut down or turned off, including the heating in many people's homes.

However, all good (and bad) things must end sometime, and it was with great relief that we saw the last snow drifts melt, the grass start to appear, and finally the sun come out.

Many things will be forgotten from year to year, but the winter of '77-'78 and its memories will never totally fade from sight.

Dear Friends:

I sincerely thank you all, the faculties, all my friends + every single person, who made this year possible for me. I really appreciate your friendliness + kindness which made me an unforgettable year. It was so wonderful and I will think back always of all the good times we had.

A year sounded so long, yet it quickly flew away. But I'll be looking forward to the day I come back anxiously.

Please stay so nice to the AFS students coming as you were to me. And I wish you all good luck + successful life.

The girls' varsity volleyball team, coached by Carmen Haydu had an excellent season with an overall record of thirteen wins and three loses — finishing second in the league. Their high hopes for a Suburban League Championship were shattered in the last game of the season against Hudson. Team members, junior varsity players and the "Revere Boosters" supported the team to the very end. Barb Brunie received the MVP award and was selected to the All-Suburban First Team. Karen Stevenson, the leading scorer, also was chosen for the All-Suburban First Team and Jill MacIntyre was voted to the All-Suburban Second Team.

The junior varsity team, coached by Stephanie Cox, compiled a record of six wins and nine loses.

Spirit Revived After A Decade

Not since 1968 has a Revere football team threatened the traditional league-leading teams of Highland, Norton and Green. As always, the newspapers grossly underrated the team, stating a series of pitfalls such as lack of size and talent and the disadvantage of having a new coach. The criticisms were all conceived by a rookie sports reporter who had never seen a Revere practice or scrimmage. It was sheer pleasure when the Minutemen contradicted every pre-season prediction. For instance, there was the Central Hower game which we were supposed to lose. About the only thing lost was a little air out of the ball as Revere romped 35-0. This set the pace for the rest of the season as the team went 7-3, boosting the school spirit to an all-time high.

ABOVE: Autumn Fridays were filled with the anticipation of the coming game and capturing this spirit were the excellent posters of Tonto Bohovich. BELOW: All-Suburban tight end John Meek pulls down a pass for a touchdown. Revere's passing attack became a major force in the strategy.

Not since the team of Penzenik and Solvlansky has Revere had two such explosive ball carriers. Mark was chosen for the All-District team, compiling over 1,200 yards and scoring 19 touchdowns. Doug, although forced to sit out a couple of games with an injury, was awesome in both blocking and running. The combination of speed and power coupled with the exceptional blocking of the offensive line characterized the outstanding offense. BELOW: Kris Burkett makes an extra point look easy. The senior players proved to be standouts not only on the team but also in the Suburban League. Defensively, Dave Brown, Joe Aulino and Kris Burkett were outstanding all year long. The three compiled over 190 tackles and 20 sacks, an unbelievable performance. Offensively, there was the team of Scott Adair and John Meek, two friends since grade school, who threatened the league with their awesome passing attack. Scott passed for 686 yards, John accounting for 502 of the yards. This offensive weapon, coupled with the running attack, made Revere "the team to beat" in the league.

How many years has a Revere football team averaged 277 yards per game and 23.1 points? One must search through many past yearbooks to find such a team. The return to power of the Minutemen was hailed by capacity crowds all year long. Thanks to the 1977 football team, Revere has revived the spirit lost for a decade.

The football teams of past years have all been made up of talented and skillful players. But it takes a special kind of coach to bring out the best in his players, as did Coach Pappano. Practice sessions that began early in August and continued throughout the football season were looked forward to by the members of the team, and this dedication was just a reflection of the pride and spirit inspired in them by Coach Pappano. Because of his devotion to the football team, Coach Pappano earned the respect of both the student body and the team.

After losing four seniors, the golf team struggled to a 5-18 record. The team was young and inexperienced and this was also Mr. Scott's first year as golf coach. However, they finished the season two strokes out of third place in the Suburban League. Ron Munsey was a medalist in twelve of the regular season matches, carrying an average of 39.5 strokes for nine holes for the entire season.

This year's cross country team succeeded in bettering their standing in the league by coming in fourth. Reyna Lounsbury, following in the footsteps of her brother Blair, became the first girl to run on the team. Class records were set by Reyna, John Devine, John Palazzo and Dave Barrett in their respective grades. John Palazzo also broke his old record in the two and a half mile to establish a new time of 13:36.

Revere Loses Heartbreakers

The 1977-78 varsity basketball season started out with five consecutive wins. Unfortunately, by season's end the team had an 8 win 11 loss record and was tied for fifth place with Coventry. Four of the losses were major disappointments with Revere losing by two points. A bright spot in the season was the play of junior Jon Weingart. He was the team's high scorer and was a member of the All-Suburban team for the second time. Seniors Scott Adair, Dave Barrett, and John Meek received honorable mention.

JV Tops 'Em All

After losing their first two games last season the Junior Varsity Basketball team went on to win nine in a row, with their final record being 14-4. This made the J.V. team #1 in the Suburban League. The high rebounder of the J.V. team was Jeff Moore. The most improved player of the 1977-78 season was Chris Kellis. Rick Davis was high scorer, most valuable player, and the person who achieved the highest number of profile points.

Freshman Take Honors

The freshmen basketball team had a very successful year. They placed second in the Revere Tournament out of eight teams. Coached by Mr. Roberts, the team won a total of fourteen games and lost only four.

The members of the freshman team were: Brian Ellsworth, Bob Jones, Todd Radloff, Roman Horodysky, Scott Kacic, Glenn Keiper, Lee Gillette, Dale Halliwill, Dale Petrino, Martin Fortes, Tom Hecmanczuk, Nesto Allesio.

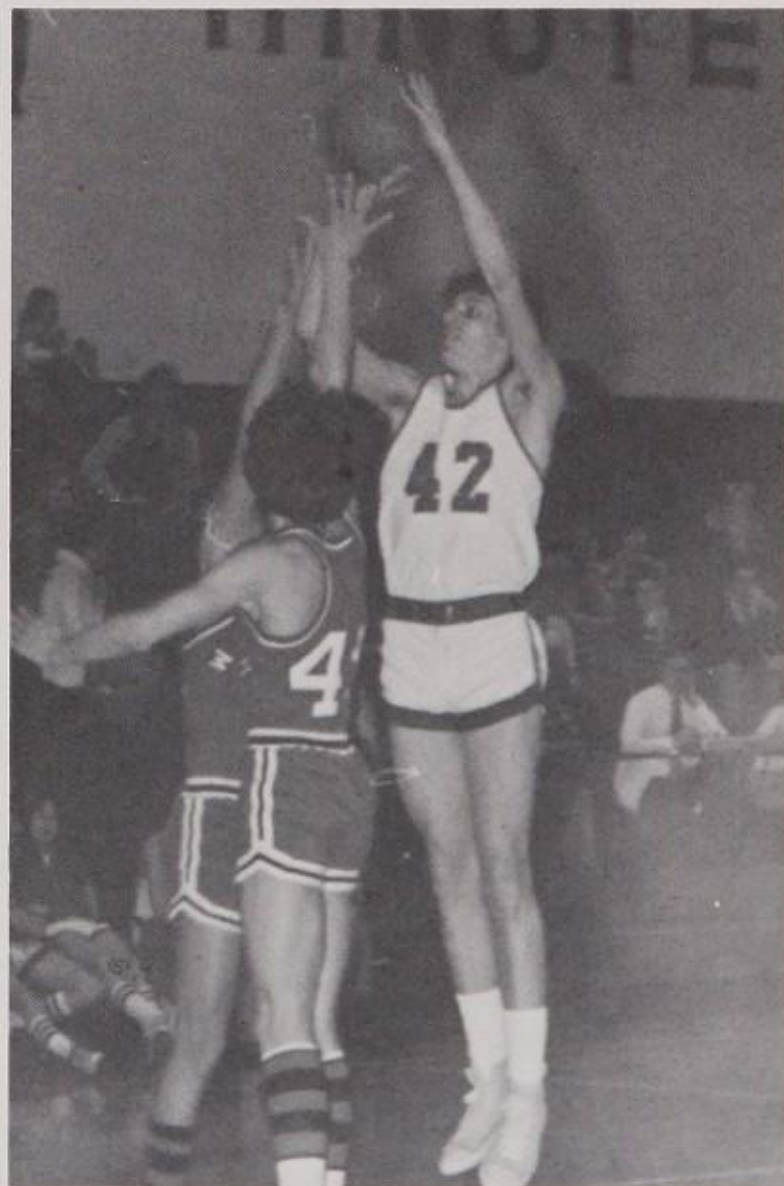

The team was optimistic about winning throughout the season and agreed that they should have won the four games that were lost.

Girls' Basketball

The girls' Varsity basketball team came a long way from last season's record of seven wins and nine losses to an impressive finish of fourteen wins and six losses. The Suburban League trophy was co-captured with Coventry while a league record of eleven wins and three losses and a Sectional Championship was accomplished.

On the night of the Sports Banquet, co-captain Wendy Hotz received the awards of Most Profile points and also M.V.P. Peggy Kingman took honors in high scoring and high rebounding. Awards also went to Rose Marie Torma and Nancy Seiler for most assists and best free throw percentage respectively.

The Junior Varsity finished the season with an overall record of three wins and twelve losses, while their league record was three wins and eleven losses.

There Were The Winners And The Losers

Full fledged Washington Bullets' fan, Mr. Roy Bohlin instigated another fine year of intramural basketball. During those snow-covered days of February and March, a few staunch individuals managed to show up for some grueling 5 on 5 (or sometimes 3 on 5) competition. Those who chose to refuse a varsity uniform made up a league consisting of roughly six teams. After the regular season competition, in which each team had an opportunity to play every other team 3 or 4 times, the successful teams proceeded into the playoffs. Eventually winning the championship was the fabulous Tom Soulier team, winning a close decision against Joe Aulino and his team. Every game was characterized by fine sportsmanship, fundamentally sound competition, and a general pursuit of fair play. Consequently, every participant in this year's program enjoyed himself. Most importantly though, we separated the winners from the losers.

Hard Work Is The Only Way

When the wrestler pulls open the locker room door early on Christmas Eve morning for practice, he wonders, "What is it all for?" But when he steps up on the highest podium as the champion, he realizes hard work is the only way.

The wrestling team opened the season by taking third place in the Brunswick Invitational and clobbering Copley 43 to 13. They finished their season with a record of 5 and 4. Placing in the Brunswick Tournament were Rick Scavuzzo and Kris Burkett with first places, John Palazzo and Greg Wade with seconds, and Doug Hare and Matt Bosworth with fourths.

Matmen placing in the Suburban League Tournament were Rick Scavuzzo and Kris Burkett with second places, Matt Bosworth and John Haymon with thirds, and Pat Tuttle, John Palazzo, and Mike Kelly with fourth places.

Placing in the Northeastern Sectional Tournament and qualifying for districts were Kris Burkett and Rick Scavuzzo with first places, Matt Bosworth with second place, John Palazzo with third and Greg Wade with fourth place.

Rick Scavuzzo took fourth place in the District Tournament and was an alternate for the State Tournament.

Every Tuesday

Each Tuesday for ten weeks, Revere students filled seven courts at Spring-side Racquet Club for a series of mad-cap antics known as tennis. Smiles were frequent, especially for those who won. The two hour recreational activity, led by "racketeer" Mr. Mulrooney, provided a much needed break to the stress and strain of high school life. Points were awarded on the basis of weekly performance, and trophies were awarded to the champions and runners-up of both sexes. Winners were Ted Weil and 8th grader Kathy Wilson. Coming in second were Brian Reischman and Cathe Crislip.

Track's Largest Turnout

The running Minutemen and women were characterized by a multitude of youthful athletes with only five senior boys and seven senior girls. Unfortunately, the cold, wet weather was a major rival throughout the season, rendering many of the runners sick or injured. There were, however, some standouts despite the inclement weather. Five athletes represented Revere in the District Championships at Kent Roosevelt High School—Jeff Tedick, shotput; Patty Barkow, 100 yard dash; Dianne Mioduszeski, 440 yard dash; Bridget Parthe, Stacy Taylor, Dianne, and Patty—880 yard medley relay.

Upperclassmen Curt Kollert, Bob Gabel, Andy Horodysky, Dave Magazzeni and Mike Millisor were point getters throughout the year. Karen Stevenson, Jennie Marstrell, Sue Jordan and Becky Nye scored for the girls.

The underclassmen and women contributing to the varsity effort were Jeff Moore, Pricilla Strong, Pam Giles, Jeanette Heydorn, John Devine, Todd Taylor, Jean Lutwak and Chris Brazie.

A little experience combined with the talent available should produce strong teams in the future.

Baseball Team Keeps Pitching

Prior to the 1978 Varsity Baseball season, talk of going to the state tournament circulated freely. However, after the first thirteen games, many felt the team was dead because of their 4-9 record. Despite this, the team stuck together and won 7 of their final 8 games. Instrumental in this comeback was Dave Barrett, who after missing two weeks due to the measles, provided strong hitting and pitching. The unquestionable highlight of the season was Joe Aulino's no-hit 9-0 victory over Coventry. Both Barrett and Aulino made the All-Suburban League team. Doug Arbuckle was given the Coaches' Award for his overall contribution in the field and at the plate.

Varsity Turns Out Even

This year a new feature was added to the girls' softball program. A junior-varsity team, under the direction of Mary Summerville, gave more girls a chance to participate in Revere softball.

The varsity team was under the leadership of Mr. Bent for the second year. The varsity team had a record of 7-7. This year there were two members on the All-Suburban team; they were sophomore Rose Marie Torma and senior Melanie Gasbarre. Several members of the softball team received special awards. The most improved player was Kathy Eaton; the player with the highest batting average was Rose Marie Torma, and the most valuable players were Rose Marie Torma and Melanie Gasbarre.

Tennis Makes Miraculous Comeback

After a horrendous 0-6 start, the boys' tennis team came back to win their final four matches, including a 4-1 victory over Garfield, one of the top city teams. Unfortunately for the team though, 12 matches were cancelled during the playing season because of the inclement weather. Revere's team sported two of the eight sectional champions who went on to compete at the district competition. The two players from Revere were Ed Randall and Steve Torma.

Girls Do It for the First Time

Because of the current interest in tennis, a tennis team for girls was finally added to the sport's curriculum. As the team was young and inexperienced, the season was a disappointment to the girls; however, several close matches showed just how much the team had improved with the help of Mr. Ray Cox, the coach of the boys' tennis team for several years. The team finished the season with an impressive 5-7 record.

The tennis team consisted of two seniors, Kay Conger and Michelle Springer, a junior, Lisa Wilson, and six freshmen, Christie Shoemaker, Maureen Scott, Laura Lopez, Ann Eastman, Cathe Crislip and Wendy Wallis.

Student Council Reaches Goals

Mr. Wilkins prepares to go to the donor room of the Bloodmobile.

This year's Student Council did an effective job under the stern gaze of President Renee Hruby and Vice-president Dave Martin. They performed their duties with their usual efficiency. Once again Student Council gave homeroom reports in the morning to inform the students of their ideas. They sponsored their usual projects: dances, the Bloodmobile, Homecoming and the cheerleading contest. This year they invited an English rock group AARON to come and play at our school. Andre Thornton, the first baseman for the Cleveland Indians, spoke at the Thanksgiving assembly which was set up by Student Council. Our Student Council did something very special this year—they gave the children in a children home some joy by distributing Easter baskets to them.

Thespians Make Transition

At the end of the last school year, 1977, Mr. Si Morse left Revere to pursue graduate work in drama. To begin again is never easy, but this was the task confronting the Thespians and their new advisor, Kate Frazier.

The officers: Dave Lehman, President; Anne Jordan, Vice-President; Bambi Ashbrook, Secretary; and Liz Peebles, Treasurer, set to work with enthusiasm. On February 11, the Thespian officers presented a formal initiation, giving pins, membership cards, and yellow roses to each inductee. After the spring play THE FANTASTICKS, on June 1st, a banquet was held at THE MARK and Ginger Bigelow, Tammy Brovitz, Doug Cox, Kelly Douds, Louie Hebert, Anne Kubelik, Christy Lohmann, Larry Nabors, Julianna Peterson, Kathy Rohrer, and Rachel Taber became new members.

Greg Bredbeck and Anne Kubelik, "Act well their part; there all honor lies."

"We light this candle to praise the living spirit of world theater."

Looking To The Future

The members of Future Secretaries Association include: SEATED: Renee Hruby and Sylvia Fatkins. STANDING: Sue Bowers, Ruth Clark, Mrs. Woodling, Linda Benner and Stacy Kevelder.

Sponsored by the National Secretaries Association, the Rubber City Chapter of the Future Secretaries Association attended meetings held the second Monday of every month. Oftentimes the girls would tour business offices like those at Firestone or have guest speakers during the meetings. In past years a seminar at Akron University has been scheduled for the members to attend, but because of the extremely poor weather the seminar was cancelled this year. However, some of the members from Revere travelled to a contest and seminar held in Dayton, Ohio.

The Rubber City Chapter includes interested business students from schools throughout the Akron area and Summit County. East, Ellet, Garfield, Manchester, North and Revere were the schools involved with the Rubber City Chapter. The organization held its banquet at Anthe's.

The group's most important goal is to let its members see what the business world is really like.

The officers of C.O.E. are: Linda Benner (Pres.), Andy Americo (Vice-pres.), Renee Hruby (Treas.) and Sue Bowers (Sec.).

There Is A World Of Art

Meeting only occassionally, the art club advised by Mrs. Jean Lueptow took several field trips including one to the Cleveland Art Institute. The excursions were planned so that Revere's future artists could view what past and current artists had achieved.

N.H.S. And A.V. Gain Status

The National Honor Society had a much better start this year than last year. Their treasury was large enough to hold induction ceremonies for juniors and seniors who qualified both through academics and service to school and community. State Representative Tom Sawyer was the guest speaker at the banquet held at the Mark Restaurant. Bake sales were held several times throughout the year to supplement the treasury.

The Audio-Visual workers had a good year also. They were given an office, allowing them to organize the distribution of equipment more efficiently. The wall in Room 206 was torn down to enlarge the office, allowing them more storage space.

Members of N.H.S. include: FIRST ROW: H. Jameson, E. Ehlert, L. Merrill, J. Melden (Sec.), A. Jordan, D. Bowes, V. Boyd, S. Westfall, M. Hostettler (Pres.). SECOND ROW: B. Rusanowsky, J. # Aides Help School Function

A few aides are FRONT ROW: A. Kermizis, A. Patipokasute, C. Shoemaker, M. Wallace. SECOND ROW: D. Figliola, D. Blair, M. Peterman. TOP ROW: W. Schoff, E. Bako, D. Weidrick, M. Peyton.

Three groups of students play important roles in keeping Revere going. They work in the guidance office and the main office answering the telephones and searching for students who have appointments with counselors or principals. They also help teachers grade papers and assist in science labs. The third group aides the members of the athletic department in paperwork and publicity. The office, teacher, and athletic aides ease the loads of faculty members, enabling them to concentrate on their more important responsibilities.

Lantern's Light Refuses To Shine

Though there were very few issues of the LANTERN published this year, they were well produced. The Story of the LANTERN may soon end for there may not be a LANTERN next year. The reason for the LANTERN not being accepted by the students is something we cannot explain. But we do hope that some time the LANTERN will be published again.

LEFT: Editor Barb Rusanowsky can always be found doing something (or at last trying to make us think so). ABOVE: Being Business manager of the yearbook can have its disadvantages, but Class Cut-Up Bill Henry always finds time to lighten the burden with a favorite joke or story.

The REVERIE Staff and ad sellers are: FRONT ROW: B. Buerling, K. Hardman, B. Henry (Business Manager), B. Rusanowsky (Editor), P. Lutwak and J. Melden. BACK ROW: K. Ray, G. Bigelow, K. Magoline, P. This page has been dedicated to the REVERIE. Many people don't realize the time it takes to put together a yearbook. Even though it did mean coming to school on days that everyone else got to stay home and giving up free time to work on the pages, it was well worth the trouble. The staff would like to thank those who bought yearbooks, Mr. and Mrs. Crawford who took thousands of pictures, Dave Pataky from Josten's Yearbook Co. and our advisor Mrs. Frazier. The staff would like to give special thanks to the editor Barb Rusanowsky for her patience, explanations and bearing with us when we didn't meet deadlines. And of course, a special thanks to you.

BACK ROW: B. Papas, G. Rogerson, M. Kukral, and J. Gibbs. NOT PICTURED: K. Kmet (tres.), and I. Vare (v.p.), Ginger Bigelow.

AFS was very successful this year. The school was fortunate enough to have two foreign exchange students: Solveig Eljersen, from Denmark, and Atchara Patipokasute, from Thailand. Unfortunately, Solveig left Revere in January 1978, and moved to Twinsburg where she graduated. The annual Christmas formal was a huge success with approximately 130 couples attending, and a profit well over $800, most of which the organization gave to the adult chapter to help pay for our costs.

The annual AFS-PTSO Dinner in April went off very well with 50-60 people attending in honor of Atchara. Everyone will remember Atchara, though there are many miles between Thailand and the United States, because a part of her will always be with us.

Key Club unlocks the doors

A new organization was started at Revere this year called Key Club. It is a student service organization sponsored by the Bath-Richfield Kiwanis Club. In its first year, much of the year was spent getting a sound foundation started and planting the roots for a successful organization for years to come. Under the direction of advisor Bill Sterrett, the Key Club will become much more active and in the making are plans for many worthwhile service projects.

Minutemen March

Much

The Revere Band, one of the nation's larger high school bands, survived its first director change in 20 years and remained a source of pride for all Revere students. Long hard hours of summer practice, combined with daily rehearsals enabled the band to perform several different shows, including one where the band formed the word "Ohio" in a dazzling display. The majorettes twirled and danced to such selections as "Fifth of Beethoven" and "Southern Nights."

While marching at halftimes, the band is a unified group, but during the game each person is an individual.

Ski Club was one of the largest groups at Revere this past year. Over 50 snow-enthusiasts bundled up nearly every Friday and Saturday to go flying down the slopes at both Brandywine and Boston Mills. Six outings were planned for the club and many used these outings as a stepping stone to improve upon their skiing skills for the Winter Olympics. Ironically enough, two of these outings scheduled (believe it or not) were cancelled because of too much snow.

All in all, the Ski Club had a great season. Hopefully, there will be just as many people involved in the group next year.

Pep Club's Art Brightens School.

The Pep Club for this year was very successful, because they had so much to do. The Pep Club stayed after school on every Thursday night during football season, Monday and Thursday nights during Basketball season, and on all nights before any sports activity, whether girl or boys. On these nights they would hang little sayings with pictures to go along with the sport appropriate for that person. The Pep Club should be thanked for their effort, because they carried their services throughout the entire year.

On every locker, the night before the Green game the pep club placed this token of remembrance.

The Pep Club members are: FRONT ROW: A. Klein, M. Wills, L. Zanona, K. Stevenson (Treas.), S. Taylor (Pres.), E. Wisnieski (Vice-Pres.), B. Nagel. SECOND ROW: P. Myers, L. Stevenson, K. Owoc, A. Like a breath of fresh air, youthful Julie Nolin took over as the director of the chorus and Select Choir. Both organizations sang at many events including the Christmas assembly, Hale Homestead, Commencement, and at a women's garden club luncheon at Fairlawn United Church of Christ. In addition, everybody competed in the OMEA Solo and Ensemble Contest in Kent and received either 1's (Superior) or 2's (Excellent).

Computer Lab Assistants And Chess Club Use Their Brain Power To Inspire Knowledge

The Chess Club includes: STANDING: C. VanderVeen, K. VanderVeen. SITTING: L. Nabors, C. Solomon, P. Marlowe.

Computer Lab Assistants were an addition to the Math Department this year. Students were no longer allowed in the computer room so the lab assistants took sole charge of the computer. At least two assistants were present in the room during each class period to help feed in the new IBM cards. These replaced the chore of waiting in line to type-in instructions and thus eliminated congestion at the terminals.

The Chess Club was quite active this year. They finished their season with a 5-3 record, competing against such teams as Walsh, Stow, Western Reserve Academy, Tallmadge, and Cuyahoga Valley Christian Academy. Acting as the advisor, Mr. Sayre drove the team to all the away matches. Two seniors, Larry Nabors and Chuck Solomon, participated in the Akron Open held at the University of Akron and Chuck tied for second in this individual competition.

Stony Faces

Back in September, announcements about meetings for all rock climbers were heard. Remembering the fictitious Scuba Diving and Kayak Teams, this team was not taken seriously. However, anyone passing through Hinckley Park on Saturdays and Sundays would discover that people were actually climbing the rock faces of Whipps Ledges.

Captains Larry Nabors and Alfred Davis supplied all the equipment consisting of harnesses, carabiners, "eights," ropes and, most importantly, the instruction. Although most first attempts at climbing were not successful, everyone improved rapidly. Seemingly smooth rock faces were discovered to have many handholds and cracks for "jamming" elbows or legs. It was found also that cracks could be used for "lay-backs," or just as a place to stop and rest. Climbers became familiar with the terms rappelling, belaying and sometimes even falling. Some of the most popular ascents were "The Crack," "The Cubbyhole" and "The Overhang."

During the winter months, the team made a trip to the Cleveland Convention Center to demonstrate the techniques of rapelling (descending) at the 4-H Pet-Expo. Both Larry and Al were disappointed that the team never entered any formal competition, but they hope that the team will continue to climb next year.

Captain Larry Nabors searches for the next foothold.

The most travelled group in the school is without a doubt the National Forensics League. Going to tournaments all over the state of Ohio almost every Saturday from October to January, the Team competed with an average of fifteen schools at each tournament and won the sweepstakes at Wadsworth High School. This year the team won close to thirty trophies which was more than could fit into the trophy case in the library. Five Students were privileged to compete at the state tournament — Lee Merrill, Rusty Merrill, Helene Roussi, Marty Schmidt, and Linda Woodward.

Beginning in March Student Congress met weekly, and the "politicians" discussed, debated and passed issues and bills of current interest. Student Congress continued through June.

Cheerleaders "Flashup" Revere

The varsity and j.v. cheerleaders put together a flashlight routine to FOREIGNER'S "Long, Long, Way from Home." The girls performed at home basketball games, cheerleading competition, and twice for the student body at assemblies. The long practices paid off because the routine was excellently done.

The cheerleaders had a very successful year at the competitions they attended. Varsity and j.v. went to state competition and came back with three trophies. One was for j.v. winning fifth place over all the other squads that attended the competition. The other two were for farthest distance and an all-star cheerleading award honoring Cindy Lojek. At the Revere Invitational varsity placed first, j.v. placed fifth, freshman placed second and Julie Stewart placed in the individual competition.

This was the cheerleaders' way of wishing the football team good luck before the Green game.

The Freshman squad includes: Jill Calhoun, Laura Ross, Julie Rogers, Tracey Nobil, Beth Ost, Patty Mele, and Maggie Harris.

The spirit of the Freshman Class manifested itself in many ways. The 270 members of the class of '81 showed a genuine interest in the school. Almost every club and sport included some freshmen. The freshman athletic teams showed true devotion, spirit and pride in Revere. Finishing with an impressive record of 13-4, the 9th grade basketball team has assured doubters of future successes in the sport. The diversity of the class was not shown merely in sports. Many were cast in the fall play, while many other freshmen were active in band and pep club. However, the class was not limited to extracurricular interests, as a true concern for academics was shown. Although some freshmen were discontented with quiet study halls, this provided them the opportunity to do homework without distractions. A class as diverse and spirited as the class of '81 is hard to find.

Sophomores, Enjoy Being Yourselfs

When the class of 1980 returned in the fall of 1977, many had recovered from the agony of their freshman year, and they had matured. The class of 1980 considered themselves the best because they had left behind all the old seventies, and with their individuality had brought in the 80's. They had shown ability for sports, whether it was on the varsity or junior varsity teams, or the girls' powderpuff team who beat the seniors and went to the superpuff. (All good things must come to an end.) The sophomores also showed a lot of spirit throughout the year. The AKRON BEACON JOURNAL commented that "Revere High School will have the most spirit when the class of 1980 are seniors." The sophomores were proud to be a part of Revere and looked forward to their junior and senior years which they will carry their spirit throughout.

Linda Weingart knows that clear thoughts need concentration.

Versatility Shines In The Class Of '79

In 1977-78 Revere's changing spirit was exemplified by the versatile Junior class. Thanks to a well-organized class council and a great football team, the class of '79 by far broke all previous football concession records. The concession stand workers formed a high-spirited cheering section that would explode at each victory. The Junior float was one of the best Revere has ever seen and was a unanimous choice for best float. The Revere "RAID" can was complete with a movable arm spraying the hornets with white dust. Also this year the Junior girls pulled together to become Super-Puff champs of 1977-78. All these achievements were the product of class unity and of the help of advisor Mr. Engler.

These Are Our Years

Up until our senior year, the Class of '78 was reluctant to participate in activities. However, through the trials and headaches of finishing our Homecoming float, the seniors pulled together. Can anyone forget our first float when we changed the idea a week before Homecoming? Although we had our idea this year as seniors, the float wasn't finished until 6:30 Friday night. We have many memories shared among us. Remember . . . Michael Stanley Band, Saturday Night Fever, late night hanging-out at SkyWay and Whitey's, Christmas Dances, going to the Mall when there's nothing better to do, fluffy parties, concerts at Blossom and the Coliseum, Mr. Knapp's call-up announcements, haunted houses, the 1977 Football Season, the anonymous '78 found in the library one morning, Cedar Point, "meetings" at Pilcher's, electing presidents in government classes. All these were a prelude to our "commencement" of a new kind of life.

SCOTT ADAIR: Class Council 2 (president), 3; Commencement Usher 3; Football 1,2,3,4 (co-captain, All-Suburban); Basketball 1,2,3,4; Track 1; Baseball 2,3 (All-Suburban), 4; Powderpuff Coach 2,3,4; Bowling Green State Univ. ## The Board States Its Philosophy

For the students in the Revere School system the Board will try its utmost to provide dedicated, interested, progressive teachers; challenging programs responsive to the demands of changing times; an environment which bears the hallmark of quality; choices in education which fit their preference; good counsel throughout the years which helps them formulate their aspirations; knowledge which prepares them to think for themselves; experiences which assist them in making sound decisions in realizing their self-worth and in developing respect for others; ability to meet their responsibilities; and the attaining of evolving maturity, including lifelong interest in learning which they will need throughout their lives.

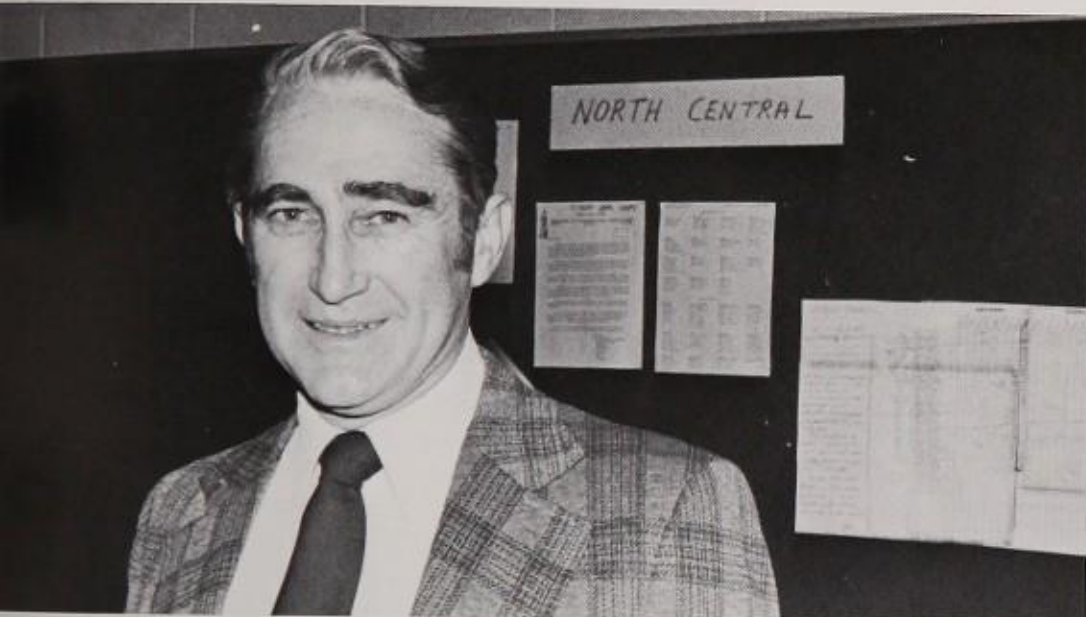

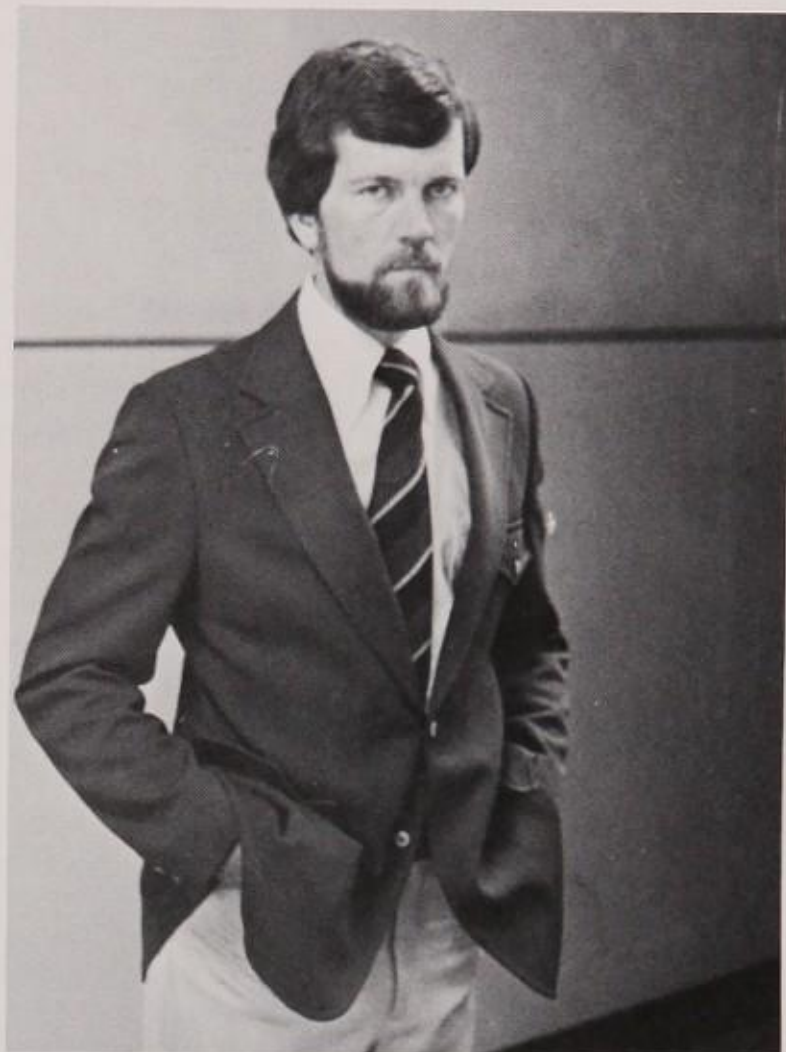

LEFT: Mr. Peter Allison acts as service affairs coordinator. ABOVE: Eileen Fisher as Clerk-Treasurer is perhaps the one indispensable person in our school system.

LEFT: Mrs. Elanor Viall was reelected this year for her fourth term to serve Revere schools. BELOW: Dr. Glenn L. Keiper, an oral surgeon, maintains a deep commitment to public education.

A Crackdown On Lawlessness

In an effort to gain firmer control over student wandering in the halls, the administration enforced long-standing regulations to a stricter degree. This was done in several fashions. Students were required to have authorized passes when going from one room to another. And in some cases, it was necessary to get a pass in order to find a teacher for another pass. The law of "No Smoking in the Restrooms" was strengthened by the presence of teachers on "potty patrol" during every class break. These and other measures were used to emphasize education rather than entertainment.

Once again this year, the secretaries and counselors of the two offices continued to cope admirably with countless schedule changes, conflicting classes, numerous student requests for everything under the sun, and still found time to aid students with free advice. And, as always, they came through with flying colors. Without the efficient and reliable administrative geniuses, Revere would be in total chaos.

Mr. Kungle (LEFT), Mrs. Boscia (MIDDLE LEFT) and Mr. Fry (BELOW) always have a moment to talk with students, parents, teachers, or principals.

Cooks Strive To Please

The day begins at 6:00 a.m. for Mrs. Hill when she starts the coffee pots perking, and she and the other cooks cannot go home until after 1:00 p.m. when lunch is all over. The cooks have the difficult task of planning and preparing the meals for students and faculty.

Because of the recent interest in the food served at schools, Mrs. Hill took some school foods service courses at Kent State University and Baldwin Wallace College. The courses dealt with menu planning, serving, and budgeting. And Revere still has the best peanut butter cookies in the Suburban League!

The two friendly cashiers in the lunch lines are Betty Dunlap and Marian Davidson.

A Custodian's Work Is Never Done

A recent addition to the custodial staff, the hungry trash compactor, greatly enhanced the appearance of the Commons, but it turned out to be more of a hindrance than a help. One of the custodians always had to be standing by the compactor.

Unfortunately, Mr. Joseph Barren will be retiring after one year as head custodian. Mr. David Jones will take on the 24 hours a day, 7 days a week responsibility of maintaining the school's appearance despite vandalism.

THE TAVERN OF RICHFIELD

For elegant country dining, a choice continental cuisine and a well stocked cellar of vintage wines, this is the place. A sumptuous two-story landmark, built 100 years ago, it has been restored to its former splendor. Peter Girardin is the master chef who spares no detail in meticulous cuisine and service. Guests have a choice of several attractive eating areas . . . THE RESTAURANT for luncheons, dinners and late suppers after the game. THE SALOON where generous libations are served from an antique backbar. THE WINE CELLAR - prime rib and salad bar, shrimp and raw oyster bar, beef and cheese fondue. COUNTRY PATIO serving charcoal grilled specialties out-of-doors. SUNDAY BRUNCH with waffles prepared tableside. THE GRAND BALLROOM for gala affairs. DINNER-BUS to the Coliseum with prime rib dinner all for $10.95. Reservations a must.

Marting Realty – over 50 years young setting new service and sales records daily.

The E. L. Marting Company was formed in 1925 – Akron's Centennial Year. Founder E. L. Marting was a bright young school teacher and principal, who in earlier years had coached two Central High School football squads to All-Ohio Championships. And as a realtor, Marting still knew how to build a winning team . . . his commitment to Akron's growth and development soon made the Marting Company a leader in the city's rapidly expanding real estate field.

With the help of Mrs. E. L. Marting, who in 1932 became Akron's first woman realtor, succeeding generations of the Marting family have carried on a tradition of dedicated service begun in the twenties. Marting Realty is number one with a record sales volume of residential property last year totaling over 47 million dollars – a record unsurpassed in the history of Akron Real Estate.

The reason is simple. Today, as over half a century ago, Akron homeowners know they can rely on Marting Realty for the finest in professional real estate service. Our exclusive in-house homefinding computer – the I.B.M. System 3/Model 8 – puts a world of vital information at our fingertips. And a staff of professional salespeople matches this modern technology with friendly, knowledgeable service. Together they form a proven combination that gives you a complete picture of Marting Realty today . . . good old fashioned dependable service, as modern as tomorrow.
